
SPONSOR A SCHOOL PROGRAM

Sponsor a school in Mali, Guinea, Senegal, or Togo for 1,500 down and $300 a month for only one year---The Schools are designed to become sustainable after one year of sponsor support!

WHERE DO YOUR DOLLARS GO?

- $1,000.00 pays the fare of the volunteer English instructor
- $500.00 pays start up and legal registration fees
- $200.00 a month pays rent
- $50.00 pays administration
- $50.00 pays lights

There may be higher costs in other countries relative to travel distances to start new school program. Targeted countries to begin effective English programs are:

Benin
Burkina Faso
Chad
Eritrea
Ethiopia
Guinea
Ivory Coast
Niger
Senegal
Timbuktu or another city in Mali
Togo

Schools have a minimal fee for students to attend. The fees eventually help to hire a local Director and local teachers. There is a great lack of employment opportunities in most countries in Africa. The Volunteer English teacher stays for six months to one year to help train a Director in English. He/She also interviews and hires the best local English teachers to administer two programs. Adult English classes have beginning, Intermediate and advanced levels courses and are due to begin March 2008. The pilot school also has a Primary English education program starting from pre-school through second grade. There is a strong English emersion program along with basic French primary requirements. The pre-school modules for sponsored schools will begin September 2008. A Donation of $1,500 and a commitment of $200 a month is needed immediately to hire the volunteer English teacher/director and start a new school.

A group raising $6,000 dollars and committed to sending $600 a month will help get four new schools on line by spring and fall 2008.

A committed organization of business or group willing to give $25,000 or organize 25 people to give $1,000 each and support the schools with $200 monthly can cover the costs of starting at least one school in all the targeted countries.
